FESTIVAL

Things that will still be the same

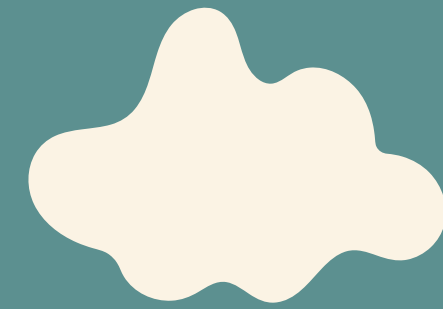

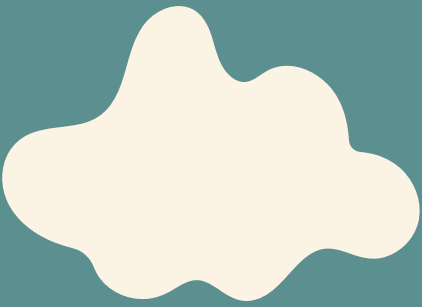

- student performances in gym (thank you to Heidi Lentz for supporting with this)
- art walk through the building hallways (teachers will fill the halls with student created art they make in their classrooms)
- tiny art show (canvases will be provided again)
- student photographs on doors for families to take home with them (Megan Hand will be the photographer this year)
- food vendors in the parking lot
- Live music (a high school jazz band!)
- kid art/craft activities (high school volunteers will be running these)
- Staff Features!: If you are interested in donating your time for a "Staff Feature" please let me know! We will provide all the funding needed! This can be anything from popsicles on the playground to movie and pizza party after school! These fun experiences will be raffled off. If you are feeling ready, go ahead and sign up! Staff
- Feature Raffle

Some things that will be different

- local art vendors selling their products
- no silent auction, instead buy now items like gift cards, credit for camps/classes/experiences
- no collaborative class art piece (this took many volunteer hours and class time, and we didn't raise as many funds as we hoped) may come back in future years

Sustainability

- Earth Week: April 22 – April 26
- Bottle Drop (Extra 20% donated!):
 - Drop Off in front of Willamette: April 22 – April 26
 - Drop Off to a BottleDrop location April 22 – May 4
- Ridwell Plastic Recycling
 - Collection Drive Starts April 22
 - Collection Pick Up May 15
